SHAKESPEARE SECTION

MEMBERS ENTERTAIN THEIR FRIENDS WITH SCENES FROM OTHELLO

Members of the Shakespeare Section of the Tuesday Club, and it is a large section, demonstrated the value of their work to themselves and gave a great treat to their friends at an open meeting which took place Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Ayars at 315 North Orange Street. Scenes from the play they have been studying—"Othello"—were presented and interpreted in a really surprising manner, inspiring the admiration and envy of the visitors and it will probably lead to many additions to the class. There was no stage setting, nor accessories in the way of scenery and costuming, the effect being dependent upon the intelligence with which the lines were given by the actors. That all might participate in the work of memorizing the parts, the leading characters, particularly Othello and Desdemona, were taken by different ladies in the different scenes, but always with fine effect.

In opening the meeting, Mrs. E. D. Yard, the curator of the section, gave a few appropriate words of greeting to guests and introduced Mrs. McClure, the section's instructor, who gave a synopsis of the play.

Miss Minola Budd, daughter of Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, who was one of the Desdemonas, gave a beau-

ITALIANS CHOOSE GLENDALE AS HOME

Robert Calao and wife are now occupying the home they recently purchased at 407 North Kenwood. Not long since they sold their residence property in Hollywood for $15,000, and took apartments in Boyle Heights. A friend brought them out to Glendale one day to look at a lot he owned and they were so charmed with the place that they decided to buy them a home here. They had intended to go back to Naples, Italy, this year, Mr. Calao said, to reclaim the ancestral acres near there, but decided to wait until affairs over there are more quiet. He says that intensive farming and fruit raising are the rule in the home country. Oranges, lemons, figs and grapes yield abundantly and every tree or vine that does not produce to its full capacity is at once cut down and replaced. He is so well satisfied with Glendale as a place of residence that he has no desire to go back to Italy to live, and his wife agrees with him.

DEMENTED WOMAN ESCAPES FROM FATHER

A. Peters of Bakersfield got off the S. P. train at Glendale station last evening with his demented daughter whom he was bringing to Glendale for treatment. While he was looking after the baggage the daughter wandered away. He at once notified the Glendale police and they searched for her several hours, but with no result. She is described as 28 years old, sandy complexion, weight 140 pounds. She had on a long black coat over a pink short-sleeved dress. She wore no hat.

PHYSICAL TRAINING IN HIGH SCHOOL

Prof. Normal C. Hayhurst, director of athletics in the Glendale Union High School, says that 400 boys and more than 400 girls are taking gymnasium work this year.

FOSTER BRIDGE CLUB

ENTERTAINED BY MRS. CROCKER AND MRS. NORTON WINS FIRST PRIZE

The Foster Bridge Club was entertained Friday by Mrs. W. B. Crocker of 327 North Cedar street. At the luncheon, which was served at 12:30, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Lester Jones. Mrs. Crocker's sister was a substitute for an absent member during the play which followed the luncheon, and Mrs. C. E. Norton won the prize, a beautiful silver candlestick in which was a long pink candle. Red carnations were used in the decoration of the luncheon table and living rooms. The ladies present were: Mesdames Lester Jones, C. E. Norton, John Robert White, A. A. MacIntyre, Maurice Bondeaux, F. B. Gonzales, A. M. Montgomery, Helen Campbell, Mabel Rudy and the hostess, Mrs Crocker and her sister.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Wednesday. No important change in temperature.

LOW TAX RATE

SUPERVISOR DODGE CALLS ATTENTION TO INTERESTING FIGURES IN ANNUAL REPORT

In an interview with the editor, Jonathan S. Dodge, County Supervisor, calls our attention to the fact that the last annual report of the Board of Supervisors shows that the rate of taxation levied for strictly county purposes, $1.025 for each one hundred dollars of assessed valuation, is the lowest county tax rate in the state, with two exceptions. The counties of Imperial and Orange have a county rate slightly less than this. The rate last year was the lowest rate for a period of thirty-five years, but an increase of salaries, and the advance in prices of foodstuffs and materials made it necessary to increase the rate during this fiscal year.

The City of Los Angeles, which embraces about sixty per cent of the taxable value of the county, is listed by the Census Bureau as the tenth city in the U. S., and the present census will probably advance it to the sixth city in population in the United States. The rate in the City of Los Angeles last year was $1.51, based on a 50 per cent valuation, and when this is compared with other cities where property is assessed on a 100 per cent valuation, her total rate will bear most favorable comparison. For instance, the rate in the City of New York is $2.04; Chicago, $1.57; Philadelphia, $1.99; St. Louis, $1.65; Boston, $1.77; Cleveland, $1.56; Baltimore, $1.76; Detroit, $2.13 and Pittsburg, $2.35. If property in the City of Los Angeles was listed for taxation at its full cash value, the rate for city purposes would be reduced to 75½ cents on each $100 valuation.

TREE PLANTING DAY

Tree planting day on February 12th when forces under direction of City Forester Marek are expected to set thousands of trees in the city parkways and in the new park for which the city fathers have negotiated, is to culminate in a public gathering at the High School which will be addressed by Mrs. Leafie Sloan-Orcutt, President of the Los Angeles Park Commission, Prof. Braunton, a great tree specialist, and Mr. Damon, a city planning expert and engineer who came from the East and who has fine up-to-date ideas.

No name has yet been bestowed on the new park, but one of the suggestions received is that inasmuch as the initial improvements will be made upon the birthday of the great emancipator, it be called "Lincoln Park."

Men in the street department of the city are today starting to prepare the parkings in the district west of Columbus and north of Myrtle for tree planting. The work will be paid for by owners of the tracts in that section, but the trees will be furnished by the city.

BAFFLING CASE

CAUSE OF THE ILLNESS OF MISS MARGARET GREGG TRACED TO WISDOM TEETH

The parents and friends of Margaret Gregg, who came home from the bay cities seriously ill about ten weeks ago and who has been in quite a critical condition since, have reason to think that the seat of the trouble which has been baffling physicians, has been discovered. Erupting wisdom teeth which had been unable to push their way through were found to be secreting pus which has been slowly poisoning the girl. The discovery was made by Mrs. Gregg, and the teeth were extracted yesterday. Miss Margaret is said to show symptoms of improvement already and members of her family look for her speedy recovery.

MISS STEBBINGS ENTERTAINS

The Stebbings' home in the beautiful hills of Eagle Rock was a scene of festive merriment Saturday evening when the graduating class of the Glendale Union High school were entertained at an evening of music and dancing by Louise Stebbings. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Miss C. Stebbings. Exhibition dancing was given by Miss Stebbings and Mr. Loomis, and Louanna McNary gave several vocal solos, accompanied by Grace Goudie at the piano. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening and the guests departed at midnight sorry that their school days were almost over.

HARD LEGAL FIGHT IN PROSPECT

COURT AT BISBEE AGREES TO ENTRANCE TO BLANKET OBJECTION BY PROSECUTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., Feb. 3.—H. E. Wooten, a Bisbee hardware dealer, went on trial today as the first defendant in the Bisbee deportation and kidnaping cases. Wooten's case was called at ten o'clock this morning, after the court had agreed to entrance of a blanket objection by the prosecution to any question in a series of depositions which the defense had prepared.

"I would like to announce what I want to do next," was the significant remark of Prosecutor French, but the Court cut him off and ordered the selection of a jury to proceed.

PRESIDENT READY FOR DUTY

IS PRONOUNCED WELL ENOUGH TO PRESIDE AT CABINET MEETINGS IF OCCASION ARISES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—President Wilson has improved so much from his nervous break-down that he is in fit condition to attend and preside over meetings of the cabinet should anything important develop that would demand his attention, Secretary Tumulty announced today.

Tumulty denied the published report that the president will preside at a cabinet meeting today.

ASPHYXIATED WHILE SLEEPING

BODIES OF SIX MEN FOUND IN SMALL ROOM IN LITTLE HOTEL IN NEWARK, N. J.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 3.—Asphyxiated while sleeping, the bodies of six men huddled together in two beds and one cot, in a small room in a little hotel here, were found this morning. All had died without waking.

MISPLACED AVIATORS

LIEUTENANTS WHO LOST THEIR WAY WHILE FLYING FROM EL PASO TO NOGALES IN CUSTODY OF MEXICO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NOGALES, Ariz., Feb. 3.—Telegrams from Napozara, Sonora, reported today that Lieutenants L. M. Wolf and G. L. Usher, American aviators, who lost their way while flying from El Paso to Nogales and landed at Napozara, are in the technical custody of the Mexican municipal authorities. It is believed the aviators will be released when word reaches Mexico City.

"PATRIOTIC DUTY"

ATTORNEY FOR MEN CHARGED WITH FRAUD IN NEWBERRY TRIAL MAKES PATRIOTISM HIS SLOGAN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 3.—"Patriotic duty," was Senator Newberry's answer today to the charges that he was elected to the senatorship in a "barrel" campaign.

In outlining his case, Defense Attorney James C. Murfin declared that public duty drove the 134 men on trial here charged with frauds in connection with that election to "do everything possible" to elect Newberry.

"Analyzing what these defendants did, the atmosphere in which they did it must be considered," he said. "When Henry Ford announced his candidacy June 14, 1918, the fate of civilization was hanging in the balance. The last German drive was at its height, the advanced armies were within thirty miles of Paris and the channel ports threatened. Americanism and patriotic excitement were at their very crest," Murfin declared. "We will prove conclusively that what these men did was not for pay but for patriotism. They were not actuated by avarice but by Americanism."

THOSE NAVAL AWARDS

BEFORE SENATE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE DANIELS SHOWS HOW ENLISTED MEN WERE OVERLOOKED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—"Admiral Sim's charges that the morale of the navy has been shattered by the alleged injustice of the medal awards is an insult to the splendid men of the navy," Secretary Daniels declared today while testifying before the Senate committee investigating the bestowal of medals.

"They are made of sterner stuff than to be rattled by a matter so unimportant in comparison with their devotion to their duty," Daniels said.

In explaining the revision he made in the awards list Daniels declared that enlisted men in the war zone were largely overlooked by the Knight Board of Awards when making recommendations. "Only 22 per cent of the officers on sea duty in the war zone were recommended,," Daniels said.

"I was astonished to find that only 119 enlisted men out of 500,000 in the navy were recommended for high honors," Daniels declared.

SCHOOL GROWTH

NEW ENROLLMENT AT INTERMEDIATE WILL ALMOST DOUBLE THAT OF LAST YEAR

Superintendent R. D. White and Miss Noble are visiting the lower grade schools and registering pupils who are to be graduated to the Intermediate and are finding the numbers so increased as compared with last year that conditions at the Intermediate will practically duplicate those existing at the High School. Last year at this time 37 were received into the school. This year the number has amounted to about sixty, and the school will be forced to use its auditorium for class room purposes.

The present enrollment is about 320. The auditorium as now constituted seats about 400, so accommodations will be sufficient in that regard, and when it becomes crowded Mr. White says two additional rooms can be thrown into it by opening folding doors and thus enlarge its capacity to nearly 500.

Miss Edwards of Covina, who is to address the graduating class Friday night at the commencement exercises in the High School, was a Y. W. C. A. worker in France during the war and has a message which Mr. White believes will be of great interest to the members of the class and their friends.

The Central Avenue Kindergarten building is completed and will be opened for use with the opening of the new term. Columbus Avenue Kindergarten is coming along but will not be ready for use for about two weeks.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

The Evangelistic meetings at the First Methodist Church are in full swing. The meeting last evening was one of great power and blessing. Evangelist Ross spoke on "Repentance." He showed the place of repentance amongst the membership of the church, where there was failure to come up to the highest privileges of the kingdom. His special message was to the unsaved, however, and with strong striking sentences he laid bare the sins of men. The musical program was one of excellence. Mr. Cooper, the Evangelist singer, is charming all who hear him with his beautiful voice and sincerity of his message. These special revival services are to continue throughout the week. At 7:15 p.m. the men and the women meet in separate groups for prayer and at 7:30 p.m. the regular meetings begin. On Thursday and Friday afternoons at 2:30 there will be Bible readings under Rev. Ross.

BIG BROTHERLY DEED

MEMBERS OF ELKS' LODGE BUILD CABIN FOR WIDOW IN BOUQUET CANYON

The excursion to Bouquet Canyon undertaken by members of the local Elks' lodge to play the part of big brother to a widow who has pre-empted land there and who was practically shelterless by reason of the wearing out of her tent, proved as pleasant and profitable as it planned to be. The wives and sweethearts went along and carried bountiful picnic lunches which they shared with the surprised beneficiary of the enterprise. While she knew that some effort was being made to help her, she was quite unprepared for the host that swept up the canyon and went to work under the efficient direction of Ed Kerri, who superintended the construction of a cabin, built in four hours, with a sign to mark her holdings, reading "Fidelity Ranch." The sign had been contributed by Mr. Gysin of this city.

Stanley Frantz had made several trips to the canyon to investigate the case and was therefore considered the prime mover in the enterprise in which he had been ably seconded by Judge Harry Miller. Besides these two and Ed Kerri, the party included Harry Moore, Dr. C. Stuart Steelman, Mr. Letts, S. Berman, Mr. West, J. F. Hearnshaw, Joe Fortunato, Dr. Buck, several members from Eagle Rock, Ray Galvin, H. Patterson and a few others.

DEATH OF A. B. SCOFIELD

A. B. Scofield, who has been a resident of Glendale for a number of years, died Monday night at 11:20 at his home at 310 North Kenwood. He was a native of Ohio and was born in 1852. He leaves a widow and a son, who reside in Highland Park. Funeral services, which will be in charge of the Scovern Company, will be announced later.

GLENDALE MAKES HIT

THIRD SALE OF FINE HOME TO EMPLOYES OF LOS ANGELES FIRM

Another fine home was sold Monday—the home of Judge Frank H. Lowe at 341 Patterson Avenue—and the purchaser was J. W. Brummel, who is connected with a Los Angeles clothing store. James W. Pearson, the real estate operator who negotiated the sale, says this is the third transaction of the kind he has put through within a week to parties connected with that firm, the other two buyers being R. W. Hawkinson and Herbert Brown. Evidently Glendale has made a hit with the people of that company.

Judge Lowe declares he has not the slightest idea of leaving Glendale, that he considers it the only place on the map and wants to end his days here, but the property sold was larger than he and Mrs. Lowe wish to have the care of, and so they have taken advantage of the opportunity to sell. If they could find what they wanted they would probably lease an apartment more adapted to their needs, but they may decide to improve the rear of a lot recently purchased by their son at the corner of Patterson and Central.

CITY WINS IN APPEAL CASE

A case that has been dragging along in the courts for nearly six years was settled last week. It concerned one of Glendale's fire engines which was bought for $6250. The company that sold it went into a receiver's hands just about the time the city paid its authorized agent, who had made the sale. The receiver brought suit for payment of the claim to him on the ground that the payment to the agent was illegal. Judgment was in favor of the city in the lower courts, but it was taken to the Court of Appeals by the receiver. This court last week affirmed the judgment of the lower courts, which ends the matter, City Clerk Sherer says.

DEATH OF SUSAN A. HOWARD

On Friday evening, January 30, 1920, Susan A. Howard passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Julia M. Lincoln, at the age of 74. She came to Glendale from Canton, Mass., but five months ago to spend the winter with the sister mentioned, who had been in ill health for many months, and she had planned to return to her home near Boston in April. She was apparently in fine health and spirits and was greatly enjoying Southern California when stricken by illness last Tuesday. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Jessie Seavey, of Canton, Mass., and three sons, Richard Howard of Providence, R. I., W. Lester Howard of Canton, Mass., and Wesley Howard of Quincy, the sister mentioned—Mrs. Lincoln Nad, a niece. Miss Jane F. Burlingame, both of 527 West Burchett Street, where deceased passed away. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 p. m. from the Burchett Street home with Rev. E. H. Willisford officiating, after which the remains will be shipped to Canton, Mass., for interment under direction of the Jewel City Undertaking Company.

CHILDREN'S ROOM

BASEMENT QUARTERS IN CITY LIBRARY FOR JUVENILES OPENED TO PUBLIC

On Monday evening the new quarters in the City Library on Harvard Street which have been provided for child patrons by finishing the basement rooms, were thrown open to the public with appropriate exercises. While the bulk of the audience was quite naturally children and the simple program was designed to interest them, parents were there, too, in considerable numbers, and the members of the Library Board, Olin Spencer, T. W. Preston, Dwight Stephenson, Mrs. Charles Temple and Mrs. Charles A. Barker. Members of the library staff, both the main institution and the branch, were also present—Mrs. J. C. Danford, City Librarian; Miss Laura Roberts, assistant librarian; Charles Cushing, Branch librarian, and other members of the library staff including Miss Leone Shattuck, Miss Margaret Pardon and Miss Alice Green.

W. W. McElroy as an ex-member of the Board was a proud and interested visitor since he could natural-

OUT OF FRANCE

The American Expeditionary Force is now definitely out of France. The last remnants of it departed a few days ago. There are a few thousand American troops still doing guard duty on the Rhine, and there may be a few more scattered through France looking after American property not yet disposed of, but these are volunteers, raised and sent over since the armistice was signed. The A. E. F. is through.

Thus ends a great chapter of history—how great, only the future can properly tell. As a correspondent writes from Paris: "Two million strong, they came, fought, won, and have gone—the greatest troop movement in the history of the world."

That is the literal truth. The nearest approach to it, perhaps, was the bringing of that vast army of Persians by Xerxes to overwhelm the Greeks, 2400 years ago—the army which itself was overwhelmed at Salamis by the Americans of that ancient time. We spoke of "bridging the Atlantic," as Xerxes bridged the Hellespont; but that was, of course, only a magnificent figure of speech. Our victory over the sea was no less than our victory over the Germans.

Those 2,000,000 have gone and returned. The chapter is ended, militarily at least. It was the first time that American troops had been sent abroad to fight an American war. If that established a precedent, it surely did so on a scale grand enough to satisfy the most grandiose New World imagination.

It was the first event of its kind. Will it be the last? And if there must be another such expedition, how many millions will there be?—Exchange.

WHAT BEET SUGAR MEANS

The beet sugar and candy industries are among the great employers of labor in the west. The beet sugar industry has prevented a sugar famine in this nation.

England seems to prefer beet sugar for candy manufacture. There is every reason at the present time to further develop and secure our beet sugar industry.

There is a shortage of sugar all over the world which will require increased production. Consumption per capita has been increasing at a rapid rate. Candy and soft drinks are being produced as never before and candy has become a necessary article of diet. The beet pulp is needed for cattle food.

Farming has been greatly benefitted by the sugar beet industry which has made it possible to get big returns from small acreage. The farmer must study how to increase tonnage per acre, thereby raising his profits.

Failure to encourage and increase the beet sugar industry at this time will be a national mistake for cheap sugar and numerous industries hinge on the success of the beet sugar industry.

Personals

G. A. Stanford is building a five-room house at 947 North Louise to cost $2600.

Eugene F. Gillis is engaged in the building of a four-room house at 1312 East Wilson Avenue.

A rumor is circulating to the effect that S. A. Davis of South Central Avenue is ill of pneumonia in the East.

G. F. Colson of 416 Burchett has commenced the erection of a six-room house and a garage, to cost $3500.

Mr. Hurlburt of 348 West Park Avenue arrived at home Saturday evening from a several weeks' auto tour of Arizona.

W. D. McRae of 634 North Kenwood has let the contract for a six-room bungalow on North Jackson, south of Doran.

Mrs. Compton of Tacoma, who has been the guest of Mrs. Louis Baker of South Brand Boulevard, has returned to her home.

February opened very auspiciously in the building line. Five permits, totaling $13,000, were issued, all for residences.

Mrs. Merritt Brown and her baby, Bettie Jane, are leaving Monday for Kansas City, Mo., to visit relatives. They expect to be gone about six weeks.

Miss Beatrice Bolen, of 369 Myrtle, who was very ill last week with an attack of pneumonia, is able to sit up today and her recovery seems assured.

Rev. A. J. Drury of Los Angeles, the father of Mrs. C. M. Crist, is a visitor for the week at the parsonage home of Dr. C. M. Crist, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

Miss Blanche Bartlett of Wichita, Kansas, who is spending the winter in Los Angeles, spent Sunday with an old friend, Miss Eva Garton, 127 S. Kenwood. Three lady friends, fellow workers, accompanied her.

E. F. Kober, who returned a few weeks ago from a long visit in the East and resumed his work of digging cesspools, is building a home and garage at 1234 East Wilson Avenue. The permit calls for a 4-room house.

An exceptionally beautiful home is being erected on East Cerritos Avenue up on the hillside for Prof. F. G. Kuhnle, teacher of sloyd in Los Angeles schools. It has two stories and a basement. It will be ready for occupancy about March 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klamm recently disposed of their home at Central and Gardena intending to build again, but have decided to postpone doing so and have purchased for temporary residence property at the southwest corner of San Fernando and Los Feliz Road.

A delightful Sunday afternoon was spent at Mr. and Mrs. Gus Rosenberger's of 1424 South Glendale. Among the guests were Mr. C. J. Klien of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Morton Sillman and three children of Detroit, Mich. Mr. Sillman is very much impressed with Glendale.

Mrs. A. B. Heacock of Compton, who formerly lived at 709 East Windsor Road, was in Glendale yesterday visiting her mother, Mrs. M. E. Timmons, of 425 East Windsor Road, and her brother, who recently came from Chicago, with his family to make his home in Glendale with his mother.

A boy got a room one night at a Fullerton Hotel by telling the landlord that his father and family expected to come to the hotel next day for a stay of several days. The act was called clever. But it doesn't take much cleverness to be crooked. Real cleverness is doing smart things and doing them honestly.

Mr. and Mrs. Flavius Jackson of Anderson, Ind., are guests of Mrs. F. M. George and her mother, Mrs. Barbara J. East of 241 South Kenwood Street. Monday afternoon they were joined by Dr. and Mrs. C. Miller and Mrs. Charles Daniels, also of Anderson, who are spending the winter in Los Angeles and who drove out to call upon them.

The services of Rev. E. H. Willisford were sought Monday afternoon by Edwin H. Clark of Duluth and Anna M. Luhm of Eau Claire, Wis., who wished to have a matrimonial knot tied good and tight. Their plans include a return to Duluth in the near future to make their permanent home. The wedding took place in the home of the preacher, with Mrs. Willisford as one of the witnesses.

Bert Farrar of Redondo Beach was in Glendale yesterday showing some friends over the city. He and his family lived for several years at 142 East Colorado and his wife died there. He and his three boys then moved to 334 Vine Street, where they lived until the move to Redondo was made. Russell, the oldest boy, who married Miss Clarice Dorminy, is now manager of a department store in Portland, Ore. Clifford is in Gallup, N. M., and Carroll is in the navy on a warship now stationed at the Samoan Islands.

J. B. Cohn, wife and daughter moved yesterday from the house they had occupied for several years at 336 North Orange Street, to 202 North Central Avenue.

Dr. Goodno has a firm of architects busy preparing the plans for the new "Glendale Theatre," to be erected at 124 South Brand Boulevard.

A. L. Bolitho and wife who came to California two weeks ago from Boone, Ia., have bought the place at 209 North Kenwood and moved in. Mr. Bolitho was a railroad engineer but has retired.

FORTNIGHTLY BRIDGE CLUB

Saturday evening was quite a red letter night in the annals of the Fortnightly Bridge Club which was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Wernette for the first time since they took possession of their beautiful new home at 1330 North Louise Street. The dining room was beautifully decorated with white and pink carnations and a three-course luncheon was served at the close of play. A new table was added to the enrollment by the election to membership of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. W. Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Parker. Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Roach substituted for Mr. and Mrs. Lane of Burbank and Mesdames Parker and Roach delightfully entertained the club with a few vocal numbers. High scores were made by Frank Ayars and Mrs. Wernette.

GIRL GRADUATE COMPLIMENTED

Miss Murray Longley, who will be graduated with the mid-year class of Glendale Union High, was the guest of honor at a little surprise party given Friday evening at the home of Miss Minola Butt, 415 South Central avenue, by a group of girls known as the "G. A. B.'s." Carnations were employed in floral decorations and refreshments were served as the evening of music and dancing with which the girls entertained themselves, drew to a close. Miss Longley was congratulated by her friends who bestowed upon her a very nice fountain pen. The guest list includes: Misses Marian Jones, Murray Longley, Mildred McKee, Esther Besant, Madeline Love, and Minola Butt.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ANNA SMITH

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Anna Smith which were held Saturday afternoon at the Jewel City Undertaking parlors brought together quite a large company of sincere mourners for a woman who had lived in Glendale long enough to make many friends here and leave her impress on its business life. Beautiful and numerous were the funeral pieces and less formal floral tributes. Officials of Glen Eyrie Chapter of the Eastern Star performed the impressive ritualistic service for the dead of their order, of which Mrs. Smith was a member, and Rev. W. E. Edmonds officiated with a sympathetic and eloquent tribute to the fine qualities of deceased. Mrs. Smith was born in Gilman, Ia., and her body was shipped to Jefferson, Ia., for interment.

OKLAHOMANS PLEASED WITH GLENDALE HOME

A. W. Woodmansee, wife and little daughter, recently took possession of the place they bought at 377 West California Avenue through the James W. Pearson agency. They came to Los Angeles from Oklahoma City, Okla., last September and at once began looking around for a location. Their attention was finally directed to Glendale when they learned that an old friend of Oklahoma days, Frank Echols of the Roberts & Echols pharmacy, lived here. They finally bought a home and have seen no cause to regret their action. Mr. Woodmansee was a traveling salesman for a wholesale drug company in the East and soon after locating in Glendale took up similar work for a Memphis, Tenn., concern.

AFTERNOON TEA

Monday afternoon Mrs. E. H. Willisford of North Orange Street was hostess at one of the chains of club teams which are being given to raise money for the Tuesday Afternoon Club house fund. Her guest list included Mrs. Mabel Ocker, Mrs. T. W. Preston, Mrs. Josephine Brant, Mrs. M. L. Russell, Mrs. W. E. Grigg and Mrs. A. R. Chappell. Four others invited, but unable to be present, sent their contributions. They will entertain, however. After the third round the chain ends, Mrs. Willisford says, but even then it will swell the fund considerably.

MANY MOVES BY REAL ESTATE FIRMS

C. E. Peck moved his jewelry store yesterday from 205 East Broadway into the new building the Bentley-Schoeneman Co. is completing for him at 206 East Broadway. Calvin Whiting and Joe Hawkins are moving today into the room vacated by Mr. Peck, and Doner & Hemenway will move tomorrow into the room vacated by Whiting and Hawkins, sharing it with W. W. and Ed M. Lee and M. P. Harrison. R. M. Jackson moves into the room vacated by Doner & Hemenway.

STORM DRAIN AT MAPLE AND BRAND PREVENTS FLOODING

Persons motoring along the east side of Brand Boulevard, south of Chestnut, are inclined to find fault with the dip in the street near Maple, which was made necessary by the drain under the P. E. tracks to divert storm waters to the west side of Brand. The first rain of this season, though not very heavy, sent such a volume of water down the east side of Brand that the storerooms on the northeast corner of Park Avenue and Brand were flooded. The new drain has remedied this situation and the flow of storm waters is diverted into streets leading west from Brand.

CONSIDERABLE LOOT RETURNED

A. Tipton of 637 West Elk Avenue, father of the boy who confessed to have committed several robberies of Glendale homes, telephoned the police last night about 7 o'clock that he found two sacks of loot on his porch which had been left there by persons unknown. It proved to be quite a lot of brooches, lockets, bracelets, chains and other jewelry, dozens of articles in all. They were taken to police headquarters to be called for and identified by the owners.

CASTLE'S HOME ROBBED

C. Castle of 131 N. Orange, reported to the police department Sunday night at 10 o'clock that his home had been entered and robbed while all the family were away. A $50 Liberty bond, five war savings stamps, a gold bracelet, a brooch set with a cluster of brilliants, a box of old coins, and a few odd trinkets were taken.

FRANCELIA BILLINGTON IN "BLIND HUSBANDS"

Glendale people are especially interested in the picture, "Blind Husbands," being shown at the Palace Grand Theatre today and tomorrow since Miss Francelia Billington, a Glendale girl, is the star in the picture.

Redlands produced crops worth $10,000,000 in 1918, of which $8,500,000 was the value of citrus fruits.

It's out of the Question to build

Is this what you have thought when you have been considering the matter of having a home of your own?

Have you thought that because you haven't enough available cash to finance the venture that you can't have a new home?

Have you thought that because you have no building lot you have to go on paying out money for rent or buy an old house which isn't at all satisfactory?

If you have said that a new house is out of the question for you, you haven't secured all the information on the subject that you should have. You haven't made inquiries at the proper source.

Why Not Let Bentley Build it for you?

Why not let Bentley take the responsibility and do the work and the worrying? Let Bentley furnish the material and hire the workmen.

If you have said it is out of the question to have a new home you don't know about Bentley's Building Service. In that case you should come in and talk the matter over with us.

SHAKESPEARE SECTION

tiful Greig number upon the piano—the delightful "Norwegian Wedding March," and for an encore another Greig number, "Elfintanz."

Following this charming musical interruption Mrs. Lyons gave "The Love Story of Othello," in a highly illuminating manner, and Miss Scott read a fine paper on "The Jealousy of Othello."

Another musical number was provided by Mrs. Frank Arnold, who sang "Who Is Sylvia?" in a perfectly irresistible manner. Later she sang "Hark, Hark, the Lark!" with no less charm.

The Shakespearean interpretations as given by the ladies included Scene 3 of Act 1, in which the part of the Duke was taken by Mrs. Van Oven. Brabantio was personated by Miss Scott, Othello by Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, the First Senator by Mrs. Goldthwaite, Desdemona by Mrs. Whiting and Iago by Mrs. Halstead.

In Scene 4 of Act 3 Desdemona was personated by Mrs. Mabel Rudy, Emilia by Mrs. Halstead, the Clown by Mrs. Cling. Later, in the dialogue between Desdemona and Othello, Mrs. Sawyer took the part of Desdemona and Mrs. Colin Cable of Othello.

In Scene 3 of Act 4 Mrs. Charles Parker was an effective Desdemona with forebodings of evil, Mrs. Halstead continuing in the part of Emilia.

In the concluding Scene 3 of Act 5, Mrs. William Ralston was to have taken the role of Othello, but was unable to be present, and so the part was read and enacted with much spirit by Mrs. McClure. So dramatic was the climax in which Desdemona (in this instance taken by Mrs. A. H. Montgomery) was suffocated by her lord the Moor, the ladies shivered and asked for something cheerful when Mrs. Charles Parker was called upon to sing. She chose "At Dawning," and for an encore number gave the beautiful "Orpheus and His Lute," to the great pleasure of her hearers. During her impersonation of Desdemona Mrs. Parker had sung the "Willow Song."

At the close of the program after announcing that the next subject of study would be "King Lear," the curator, Mrs. Yard, recommended the guests to sample the cooking of section members which they would find upon the refreshment tables, and a very pleasant half hour was spent around the punch bowl over which Mrs. Puffer presided, while the hostess and her assistants passed toothsome home-made "rocks" and other cookies.

ly feel that the work of the board during his long term of service has laid the foundation for this happy consummation of the hopes and desires of Mrs. Danford, whose heart is very much enlisted with the needs of child patrons.

The room is reached from the street through an entrance of its own under the steps which ascend to the main library. The tables and chairs of the little folks have been installed and their books placed on rebuilt shelving adapted to the room and painted to match the woodwork. The walls painted in a warm yellow tan make a pleasant background, and a wealth of windows let in a flood of sunlight by day. At night the illumination radiating from the handsome electric light fixtures is scarcely less brilliant.

In a felicitous little speech of greeting Mrs. Danford voiced her own satisfaction in the fruition of her desires and gave to her child auditors the freedom of the place. She then announced the brief program designed especially for the pleasure of the children. It included two stories most cleverly told by Miss Lilian Schick, which delighted the boys and girls very much, especially the last one, "The Cap Seller."

Miss Birdie Shropshire recited charmingly "Little Brown Baby" and "Ain't Goin' to Cry No More," and Miss Nellie Rowe delighted the children with "Johnny at the Dime Museum."

A record made by Burgess, the beloved author of "Bedtime Stories," was then given on a phonograph loaned by the Glendale Phonograph and Piano Company.

At the close of the program visitors took the opportunity to inspect the other basement rooms which include a light, commodious workroom, which has been much needed, a storeroom, and a public rest room.

The removal of the children's books from the main floor of the library has effected a great improvement separating the portion reserved for reading and reference to a greater degree and insuring less disturbance of readers.

CALIFORNIA MERMAIDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—(United Press).—California mermaids will compete for honors in aquatic events today at Sutro Baths, to be witnessed by thousands of delegates attending the convention of the Western Fruit Jobbers here.

There will be 100-yard and 50-yard races for girls. Similar races and diving exhibitions for men also are on the program.

The California Fig Growers' Association is advocating a tariff on figs.

At the conclusion of the program members of the Library Board met for their regular monthly meeting.

MRS. L. S. GILLAN'S SINGLE TAX MEETING

The question game last Saturday evening at 203 West Maple brought out some interesting disclosures regarding the prevailing theory that taxes should be raised from those having ability to pay. In practice this was found to be a farce since taxes are really raised not according to ability to pay, but according to inability to evade; that stocks, bonds, and money are for the most part, not correctly given in; that thousands of dollars worth of interior finishing, furnishings, works of art, etc., are overlooked by even the best intentioned assessors in all costly residences and buildings; that taxes on manufacturers and merchants' stocks of goods are invariably shoved on to consumers in the form of higher prices; that the owner of ten-story blocks shift their taxes to their tenants; that only the average man's home and personal property and the farmers' crops, orchards and stock, and all lands and lots could be found and assessed, so that the burden of taxation falls now on the common people and farmers.

The scientific equitable method would be to tax according to value of lands exclusively possessed, say the single taxers, regardless of all improvements. This would discourage holding land for speculation and encourage users and improvers of land, lower the cost of buildings and commodities. Mrs. Robinson led the game.

Among the best answers to questions were those given by Mrs. M. E. Ulund, Mrs. Alexander, and Miss Pearl M. Poore. At the close of the game Mr. H. V. Poore gave a resume of the present condition of near-bankruptcy of most individuals, business firms, counties and municipalities; few enterprises being undertaken without giving bonds or mortgages to Eastern or local money-lenders for funds to carry them out. He showed the extreme financial distress now existing owing to our inequitable tax system, but that money lenders reaped the harvest.

The next meeting will be Friday evening this week at Mrs. John Paul's home, 233 South Orange.

PUPILS' RECITAL

Some of the pupils of Mrs. Eva J. Cunningham gave a recital at the Congregational Church Friday evening last. In her introductory remarks, Mrs. Cunningham said that the object of a students' recital is to give the pupils confidence to appear before others, to spur them on to further effort, and to enable their friends to see what progress they are making in their work.

The program, which follows, was mainly given by the smaller children, and displayed in many cases a rare musicianly feeling and understanding of the composer's idea as he tried to express it.

The Santa Barbara Morning Press calls attention to the fact that there are 99 tons of metal in the signs the Auto Club of Southern California has placed along the highways in the southern part of the state. But that's nothing. There are at least 990 tons of solid ivory in the heads of the drivers who see the signs and don't heed them, especially the ones marking dangerous railroad crossings or mountain roads.

THE REINDEER INDUSTRY

JUNEAU, Alaska, Jan. 24.—(By Mail to United Press).—The reindeer industry is claiming a place among Alaska's industries.

Twenty-eight years ago the first reindeer were introduced into Alaska. In 1904 exactly 1,280 had been imported from Siberia and from that nucleus the number now in the territory is now known to have grown to at least 125,000.

By a system of apprenticeship a native serves four years in learning to care for the deer and receives 6, 8, 10 and 12 deer as his pay for the first, second, third and fourth years respectively. At the end of his apprenticeship he is a full-fledged herder and assumes charge of his own herd.

After the herd attains sufficient size he, in turn, is required to take on an apprentice. Thus the system of distribution among the natives is perpetuated.

So thorough has been the distribution of reindeer among the natives that the government now holds title to only about three per cent of the deer in Alaska, natives owning nearly 70 per cent and the remaining 27 per cent being owned by Laplanders and whites.

BIG CANTALOUPE ACREAGE

EL CENTRO, Cal. Feb. 3.—(United Press).—One hundred and fifty million cantaloupes is the mark Imperial Valley cantaloupe growers have set for 1920.

Twenty thousand acres of the best land will be devoted to this crop, which is one of the chief products of the valley.

During 1919 14,000 acres yielded 118,339,000 cantaloupes, according to the growers' figures.

It is the ambition of the growers to produce a third and a half of all the cantaloupes which grace the American breakfast table during 1920.

"HAVEN'T GOT TIME

Opportunity tapped at a door
With a chance for the brother within;
He rapped till his fingers were sore,
And muttered, "Come on, let me in.
Here is something I know you can do,
Here's a hill that I know you can climb,"
But the brother inside, very quickly replied:
"Old fellow, I haven't got time."

Opportunity wandered along
In search of a man who would rise.
He said to the indolent throng:
"Here's a chance for the fellow who tries."
But each of them said with a smile,
"I wish I could do it, but I'm very busy today.
Very busy today, and I'm sorry to say
That I really haven't got time."

At last opportunity came
To a man who was burdended with cares,
And said: "I now offer the same
Opportunity that has been theirs.
Here's a duty that ought to be done.
It's a chance if you've got the time to take it."
Said the man with a grin, "Come along, pass it in!
I'll either find time or I'll make it."

Of all the excuses there are
By which this old world is accursed,
This "haven't got time" is by far
The poorest, the feeblest, the worst..
A delusion it is, and a snare;
If the habit is yours, you should shake it,
For if you want to do what is offered to you
You'll find time to do it, or make it.

—Detroit Free Press.

Here's an item that needs no coloring to make it funny. An Ethiopian brother, a preacher by the way, was taking three buxom passengers for a ride in his Ford, when a tire blew out and all four leaned over the side to enjoy the sight of a flat tire, and the car turned over from their combined weight and scraped the dusky passengers along the boulevard for a distance sufficient to land two of them in the hospital.

The tourists whom the landlord robs
Emit an awful bellow.
They say he shouldn't raise their rents,
And call his methods yellow.
And then they bid him a higher price
To oust the other fellow.

The Farm Bureau Marketing Association, comprising Tulare, Kern, Kings, Fresno and Madera counties sold in its auction markets 49,123 head of hogs for $1,705,000 during 1919.

Contractors refuse to bid on the new $200,000 Y. M. C. A. building at Pomona, because of the uncertain cost of labor and material. How do they know it is to be a $200,000 building then?

Approximately 3,000 acres of new vineyards and orchards will be planted this year at Delano.

The California corn yield dropped from 35 to 33 bushels per acre in 1919.

NO MORE LOANS TO EUROPE

It is good to learn that there will be no more government loans to European governments, and that all that is needed now is food at government credit to a few nations until next harvest, and business credits upon which to do business.

"Bulgaria, Greater Serbia, Roumania, South Russia and Turkey (except Armenia) have a surplus of food this year and can export it," says Herbert Hoover. "If they control the import of silk stockings, perfume and other non-essentials, they can procure their other imports, or at least live until they do it on a business basis. Hungary could feed herself if Roumania would return the cattle and grain she abstracted last summer.

"We are therefore left with Finland, Belgium, Poland, Czecho-Slovakia and Austria to consider. Austria is the sorest point in Europe and, while she must be fed this winter, the Allies should be made to realize that any assistance from us is upon condition that she is free to make such political associations as will take her out of a perpetual poorhouse."

To feed the starving while they cannot help themselves is necessary. What Mr. Hoover wishes to make plain to the country is that more people in Europe could go to work right now if they wanted to, and that business credit is the only thing needed to get the poorest of the ravaged countries on its feet, if, given the business credit, it will use it to increase production of the things it needs.

America is always ready to succor the really needy. But there does not seem any good reason why government loans should be made to peoples who are using their private resources to finance the perfume industry.

The story that England has been trying to get an enormous government loan is, of course, absurd. England has troubles of her own paying interest on previous loans. The gigantic negotiations now in progress to "finance Europe" are private, voluntary affairs, and not to be confused with government assistance.—Long Beach Telegram.
